BIG JIM'S®

You can win $100 worth of Big Jim toys in the fabulous new Big Jim Puzzle Sweepstakes.

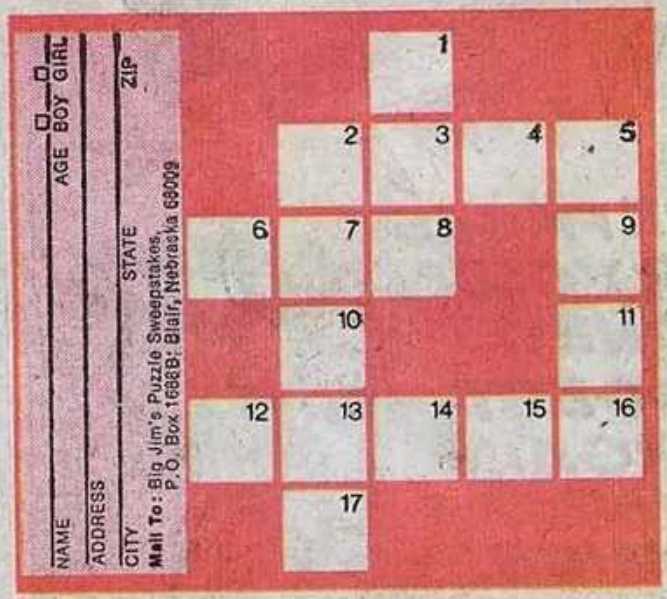
Here's how:

1. On the opposite page are pictures of Big Jim's equipment and accessories. Along with the picture is a sentence or two telling you about the toy. But there's a word missing from the sentence.

2. Figure out the missing words, then put them in their proper spaces in the crossword puzzle below. When you've finished the puzzle, send it with the completed entry blank showing your name, address and zip code. The winning name will be drawn at random by Mattel from a bin containing all the correct entries. It's exciting. It's easy. It's almost as much fun as playing with Big Jim and his great new gear. So hurry and enter now!



Mattel's decision will be final and will be made within thirty days after the sweepstakes closing date. The odds of winning will be determined by the number of correct entries received. Liability for taxes is the sole responsibility of the winner. Sweepstakes void in Idaho, Missouri, Washington, and Georgia, and wherever else prohibited or restricted by law.

Enter as often as you wish, but each entry must be mailed in a separate envelope, postmarked by January 31, 1975, and received by February 15, 1975. No substitutions for prizes. The winner will be notified by registered mail.

To obtain the winner's name, send a stamped, self addressed envelope to: Big Jim's Puzzle Sweepstakes, P.O. Box 1668, Blair, Nebraska 68009

LETTERS TO LOIS

c/o NATIONAL PERIODICAL PUBLICATIONS, INC.,
75 ROCKEFELLER PLAZA, NEW YORK, N.Y. 10019.

R-332

Dear Editor:

Hooray! The one and only LOIS LANE has returned! Many thanks to Arnold Drake for turning out the best LOIS script in a long time. I refer, of course, to "The Lady is a Bomb!" There were no roommates to detract from Lois' role in the tale, and no heavy "women's lib" overtones . . . Just a fantastic script that really moved. I hope there are more stories of this type in the works.

Keith Griffin, Mobile, Alabama

Dear Keith:

If by "stories of this type" you mean good, quality plots, putting the emphasis on Lois herself, . . . Yes! There are more in the works. And there are also changes in the works for LOIS LANE . . . Keep an eye on future issues!

* * * * *

Dear Editor:

Now this is what I call a story with Class! When he wrote "The Lady is a Bomb," Arnold Drake took one of the oldest plots and turned it into a fresh, vibrant work. In fact, I actually had to stop to enjoy page 16 . . . It was fantastic to see Superman ("Mr. Nice Guy") finally letting his true feelings on something come to the surface like this! As for Lois' remaining term as Editor-In-Chief, it should prove most interesting!

Joe Peluso, Brooklyn, N.Y.

Dear Joe:

I'm sorry to say that Lois' term as Acting Editor of the Daily Planet came to an end shortly after this tale took place. However, there's nothing to prevent Lois from resuming this post at some later date. And speaking of this . . .

* * * * *

Dear Editor:

Issue #133 of LOIS LANE was okay, even though the storyline was somewhat thin at times. I wrote you, though, to point out a major error in the story. You had Perry White appoint Lois to the position of The Daily Planet's Acting Editor, even though Lois is now a free-lance reporter, and is no longer on the Planet payroll!

G. D. Kleinfeld, Miami Shores, Florida

Dear G. D.:

Though Lois' job has changed, she's still the same person, with the same sense of honest ethics. Perry's worked with her for years, and she's got the best character witness a person could have — Superman! In addition, though Lois is no longer regularly on the Planet payroll, she still works for them occasionally, and writes up all her biggest stories for the paper. I'm sure Perry did not have the slightest doubt when he recommended Lois for the job. Besides, her appointment had to be okayed by Morgan Edge, the head of Galaxy Communications. And, as Perry White sometimes jokes: "He's a sharp Edge!"

* * * * *

Dear Editor:

I've been a reader of LOIS LANE Comics ever since my early childhood. I am now 21 years old, so I guess you'd agree that I'm an expert when it comes to appraising how the stories in LOIS LANE have changed over the years.

Well, I've just read the current LOIS LANE, and think it's a fantastic issue, as mostly all your others have been.

By the way . . . My friends all call me "Lois Lane," and they constantly ask me where Superman is and what he's doing. My usual answer is that he's helping to keep crime and evil at a minimum!

Lois (Lane) Sims, Niederkleen, Germany

Dear Lois:

Hmmm. Either that explains the lower crime-rate in Germany, or you meant that Superman keeps watch the world over; the second theory would seem plausable, as I don't believe Clark Kent has vacated his Metropolis apartment. And here's hoping for many more years of reading LOIS LANE in her adventures (although some day the magazine may have its name changed to "Superman's Wife, LOIS LANE").

* * * * *

Dear Editor:

I truly enjoy your stories, and their characters . . . They're simply great! I don't believe in telling people of their mistakes, especially since I haven't found any to speak of . . . So I'm writing just to tell you that I think you're very fair in your attitudes toward your readers. You take the complaints of those who do write to complain, and you answer them constructively. As long as LOIS LANE is on sale, I will continue to buy it, and remain a follower of Lois' adventures!

Bonnie Erickson, Alberta, Canada

Dear Bonnie:

We are enjoying your letter as much as you are enjoying our magazine! Thank you for writing us . . . Keep reading and enjoying!

Allan Asherman
Editorial Assistant

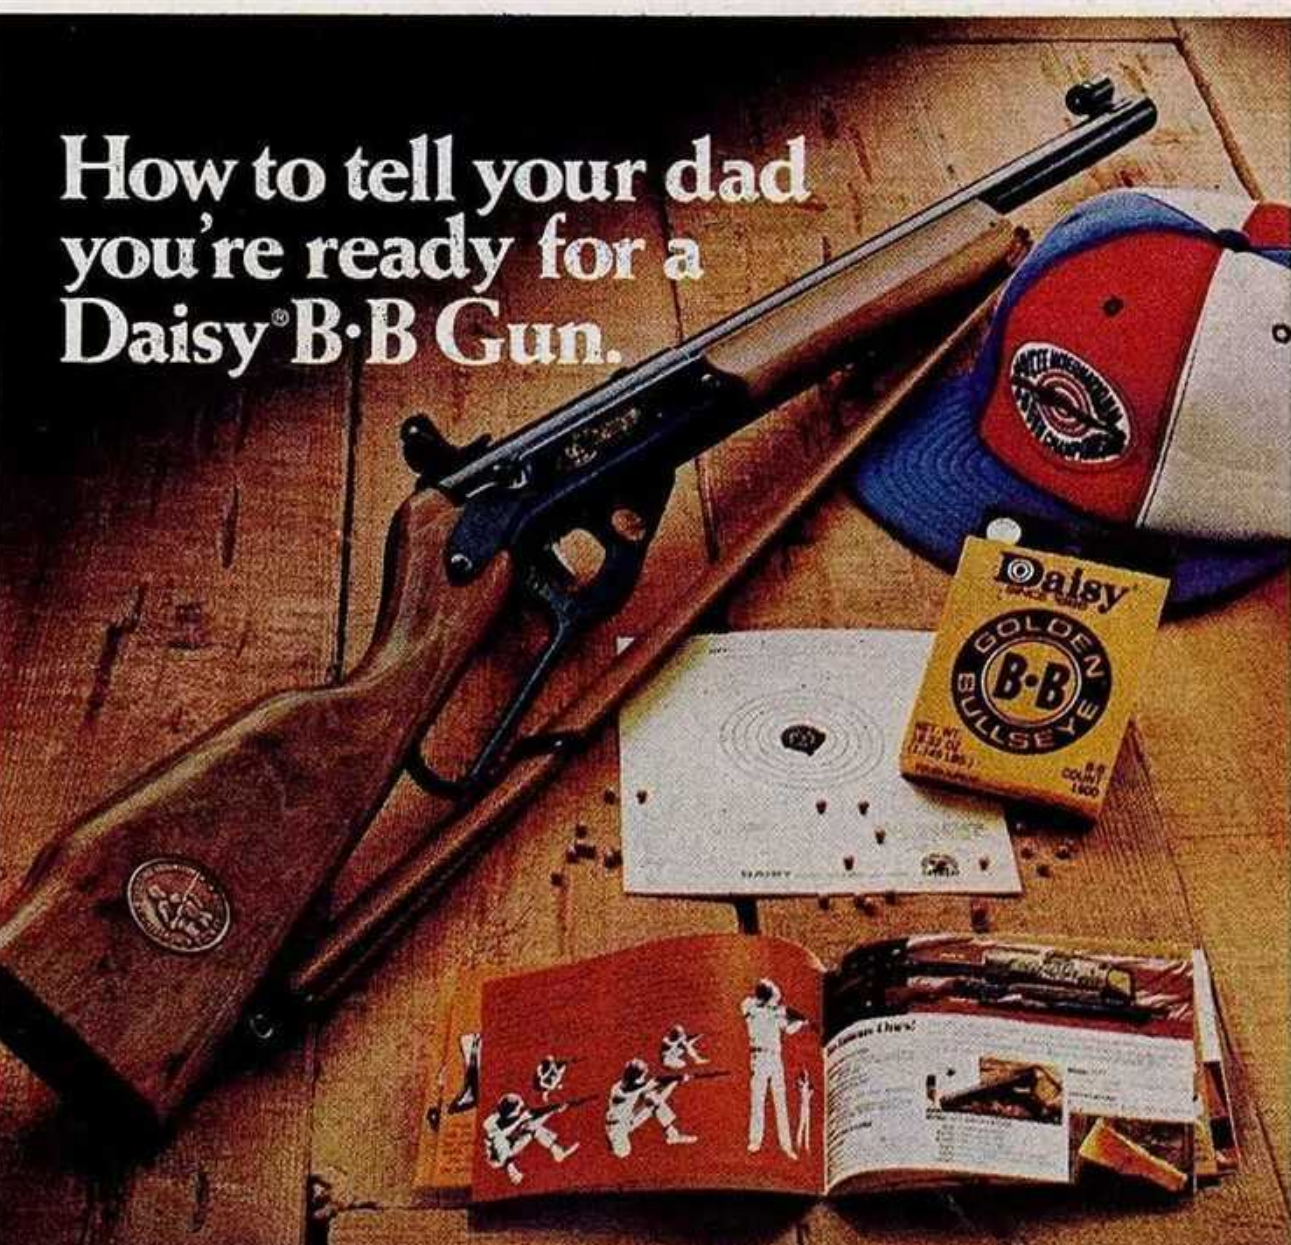
How to tell your dad you're ready for a Daisy® B·B Gun.



It's in this free booklet.

Wow your dad with the Code of the Daisy Rifleman. He'll know you care enough to learn gun safety rules and responsibilities. Find out how to build a 15-foot indoor or outdoor shooting range. It'll tell him you probably have room for a Daisy B·B Gun. Show him the 33 models of Daisy B·B Guns, including the ones built for your size and age (from 8 on up). You'll find all these facts in "The Air Rifle Marksman by Daisy."

Get your free copy of "The Air Rifle Marksman" at most Daisy dealers. Or write Daisy and we'll send you one. But be sure Dad sees the booklet when you get it. It might tell him you're ready for a Daisy B·B Gun right now.

Do you know?

Which is the safe way to carry a B·B Gun?

Answer: They are both correct. Find out more gun safety and fun facts in your free Daisy booklet.
